Three Seconds Remain

Only three seconds showed on the clock in Tennessee. The score was tied, and Cleveland had one last opportunity. Szmyt lined up for a 32-yard field goal, a kick worth three points.

His kick went through, and the Browns won 27-24. That final moment came after a game that swung back and forth.

Tennessee Starts Fast

Tony Pollard gave the Titans a quick lead. He ran 36 yards for a touchdown on Tennessee's first drive. Soon after, a Browns pass was caught by Tennessee defender Flott instead. Pollard then ran 10 yards for another touchdown.

Tennessee led 14-0 just six minutes into the game. But Cleveland fought back. Quinshon Judkins broke free for a 30-yard run, then ran 5 yards for a touchdown. Later, Judkins scored again from 6 yards away to tie the score.

Before halftime, Browns quarterback Watson threw sharp passes to Concepcion and Harold Fannin Jr. Szmyt made a 28-yard field goal as time ran out. Cleveland took a 17-14 lead into the break.

One Last Answer

The second half stayed close. Tennessee tied the score 17-17 with a 29-yard field goal. Then Cleveland made its best drive. Fannin caught two key passes, Concepcion ran 18 yards, and Watson ran 9 yards for a touchdown.

The Browns led 24-17 with 4:34 left. Yet Tennessee answered again. Cam Ward threw a 26-yard pass to Elic Ayomanor and found Tate near the goal line. Pollard ran in for his third touchdown with 58 seconds left. He finished with 129 rushing yards.

Then Fannin made a 36-yard catch to move Cleveland close. Szmyt's final kick won the game. The Browns improved to 5-2, while Tennessee fell to 1-6.

READING

- 1 B Szmyt made a 32-yard field goal.
With three seconds on the clock, Szmyt kicked a 32-yard field goal through the posts. This gave Cleveland a 27–24 win.
- 2 D He ran without being stopped.
The article says Judkins “broke free” for a 30-yard run, meaning he got past defenders and ran a long distance without being stopped.
- 3 D Szmyt made a 28-yard field goal.
The score was tied after Judkins’s second touchdown. Szmyt’s 28-yard field goal just before halftime put Cleveland ahead 17–14.
- 4 A Tennessee tied the game at 24–24 late in the fourth quarter.
Pollard’s third touchdown tied the score 24–24 with 58 seconds left. Cleveland then moved close enough for Szmyt’s winning kick.

MATH

- 1 A 11.30
- 2 C 4.00
- 3 D 100
- 4 D $9 \times 10 + 6 \times 1$
- 5 B 130
- 6 A 23.4
 $96 \text{ rushing yards} \times 0.1 = 9.6$
 $2 \text{ rushing touchdowns} \times 6 = 12$
 $1 \text{ catch} \times 1 = 1$
 $8 \text{ receiving yards} \times 0.1 = 0.8$
Total: $9.6 + 12 + 1 + 0.8 = 23.4$

READING (cont.)

- 5 B Cleveland recovered from an early deficit and won after a close finish.

Tennessee led 14-0 early, but Cleveland fought back and took the lead before halftime. After Tennessee tied the game late, Cleveland answered with a final drive and winning field goal.

- 6 What a good answer includes:

A strong response explains that Tennessee started ahead 14-0, Cleveland fought back through plays such as Judkins's touchdowns and Szmyt's field goal, and Tennessee later tied the game. It should also explain that Fannin's late catch helped set up Szmyt's winning kick.
